

PERSONAL DATA – GENERAL CONSENT FORM FOR PERSONAL DATA

What do we believe about privacy?

We take your privacy seriously, because we believe that this is a way to show you respect and to treat you well. We want to do more than just comply with the law. We would like to communicate with you about our churches and activities but we need your agreement to do this. Please fill in your details below so that we know which communications you agree, or do not agree, to receive from us.

You can find out more about how we use your personal data by reading our privacy notice, and you will find the latest version on our website at www.goodpeter.org.uk You can change or withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Church Office (details below).

How do we communicate as a church?

We share information through our monthly notice sheet, in services, on our website, via social media, and through a regular email update. From time to time we may also contact you by post or telephone. If you'd like to keep in touch, you'll need to consent to us communicating with you in one or all of the following ways: by email, telephone, mobile phone, post or social media.

You can grant consent to all the purposes, one of the purposes or none of the purposes. Where you do not grant consent we will not be able to use your personal data (so for example we may not be able to let you know about forthcoming services and events); except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm.

You can find out more about how we use your data from our "Privacy Notice" which is available from our website: www.goodpeter.org.uk or from the Church Office. You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting the Church Office on 020 83182363 or office@goodpeter.org.uk
